Dear Parents/Carers

Another very busy week has passed and the children are now beginning to be quite tired, yet they continue to be a credit to you. The number of children having a hot school meal has increased considerably and the meals are superb value for money. I wish I could have one!

Thank you for being so careful and taking the risk of COVID infection seriously, but more importantly, thank you for returning children to school when tests are negative. The teachers have now written a Remote Learning Policy which will be posted on our website. This clearly sets out the responsibilities of Teachers, TA's, Parents and Children. If someone in your home tests positive then it is the right thing to do, to keep your child at home for 14 days, in this way you keep the school and the community safe. Many of those testing positive are frontline workers, who have continued to work when perhaps they would have liked to stay at home and look after their families. They are our heroes and heroines. Hopefully if you are in this group you will find our support with remote learning invaluable.

TVMS

Tees Valley Music Service started lessons in the hall this week with half of Years 4, 5 and 6. The children were thoroughly engaged.

Special People

We have a special person to thank this week: Mr Michael Shepherd who saw our school on the Businesses Schools website and came all the way from York to donate his wife's laptop to school. The children and staff from Lockwood would like to thank you from the bottom of their hearts for your generosity.

eSchools

Miss Evans has reset all of the children's eSchools details. Teachers from Reception to Year 6 will stick the login details in each child's reading record (it could be in the back). Please encourage your child to test their login details and inform school as quickly as possible of any issues.

Are you interested in being a parent governor?

There is currently a vacancy for a parent governor on the governing body of the school. Parents or Guardians of children attending the school are invited to apply.

Please have a look through the letter sent home with the children regarding the role.

Think, how you would like people to treat you.
Then treat other people that way!

Have a lovely weekend. Mrs Lawson
